Cantoral A (f. 183v)
Missale (f. 282v)

In Ieiunio Kalendarum Novembrium

The musical score is written on four staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef and a common time signature (C). The melody is primarily composed of quarter and eighth notes, with some rests. The lyrics are written below the notes, with hyphens indicating syllables that span across multiple notes. The text is in Latin and describes the feast of the Fast of the Kalends of November. The score concludes with a double bar line.
